Dexter James

Dexter, better known as Dex, is an 11 year old boy growing up in Joplin, Missouri. His older brother, Jeremy, is a Navy SEAL. Dex admires a lot about his brother who he looks up to. He even makes up his bed military style as a way of keeping close to his brother.

Dylan was Dex's best friend until he started hanging out with the football players. Dex wishes that he and Dylan were still buddies and hopes that the only time they hang out is at lunch when Dex shows off pictures of Jeremy and tells stories about his feats as a Navy SEAL.

Dex spends his after school time with his dog Zeke. The two rule around town.

Dex is interested in weather. He enjoys watching Dr. Dagle's television show called Tornado Mysteries.

At night Dex admits doing things that he and Jeremy did together such as play scrabble. Instead he just hangs out in his room with Zeke.

Option 2

Students complete the organizer by writing complete sentences.

Chapters 1-2 - Constructive Response - Cause and Effect

Complete the cause and effect map to explain the events in Chapters 1-2.

CAUSE	EFFECT
The tornado was three-quarters of a mile wide with winds of 150 miles per hour.	Much of the town, Joplin, Missouri, was destroyed, and 158 people were killed.
Tornadoes never warn.	Dexter wanted to meet tornadoes and, he died in Joplin, Mo.
Dex doesn't want to hurt the Tornadoes' feelings.	Dex says the air is a quarter of a mile, whereas the tornadoes are 150 miles wide. He says that the tornadoes are 150 miles wide.
The storm is just a few hours away from being a SEA.	When the storm comes, the town will be destroyed. Dex is sure that he will be killed. He is sure that he will be killed.
